

Mission: The All Glory Project is a 501(c)3 charitable non-profit that funds, fosters and promotes programs that utilize animal-assisted therapies in aiding military veterans and their families across the USA. Our campaign of consciousness includes all wounded heroes, human and animal alike. We also support efforts to increase public awareness and industry research about the powers of animal-assisted therapy.

MAKE YOURSELF HEARD!

Post a tribute to your favorite veteran, therapy center or therapy animal on our Virtual Monument at AllGloryTributes.com

Help us bring animal-assisted therapies to Veterans and their Families!

WHAT HAS THE ALL GLORY PROJECT DONE LATELY?

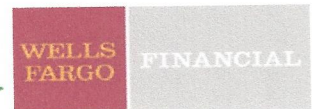

IN KENTUCKY:

• After funding the pilot for its creation, we continue to help fund the expansion and operation of Central Kentucky Riding for Hope's Military Services Programs. These provide various levels and styles of Equine-Assisted-Therapies for homeless veterans, branch military veterans, and National Guard and Reserves veterans, including a planned vocational training program.

IN CALIFORNIA:

• We're collaborating with Habitat for Humanity, CalVet and the Wells Fargo Foundation to bring animal-assisted therapy and ranch-based wellness programs to the Veterans and their families residing in Habitat's special Enriched Neighborhoods for Low-Income Veterans. They actually receive sweat-equity for participating!

• We're funding one-on-one Equine-Assisted Psychotherapy for VA veterans at Ride On Therapeutic Horsemanship, and fun-filled Family Wellness Days via Shadow Hills' Saddles for Soldiers program and the Hollywood Charity Horse Show.

IN WASHINGTON, D.C.:

• Funded over 120 therapy sessions at the Rock Creek Riders' Ridewell program, doubling their capacity. This provides free EAT for both veterans and active military from Walter Reed Medical Center and the National Intrepid Center for Excellence TBI/Psychology unit at the
