Raise a Glass to Hawthorne's Economic Growth
Hawthorne is on the up and up, and we're excited to highlight the awesome breweries that are part of our economic boom. Right now, we've got two standout spots – Common Space and Los Angeles Ale Works – making waves and contributing to our goal of becoming a go-to city in the South Bay. But it's not just about good beer; these breweries are bringing in the business. Recent stats show more jobs, more visitors, and a boost in community activity. They are a trusted partner to the City of Hawthorne and have sponsored many events like the Mayor's State of the City, HPD's Annual Fundraiser, and have hosted a variety of events for our stakeholders.
